FAQS

IS THIS TRAINING FOR ME, I AM NOT A PROFESSIONAL?

YES! This is not a training targeting professional counselors. It is intended for anyone who is interested in doing relational poverty alleviation, improving their relational poverty alleviation skills and/or training others in their organizations, but do not consider themselves professional Social Workers, Care Coordinators, Advocates, or Navigators.

DO I HAVE TO BE A PERSON OF FAITH TO ATTEND?

NO! Our goal was to develop workshops that are open and welcoming to persons of faith and those without faith. Workshops where attendees can discuss their faith and how it impacts their action comfortably. Yet, attendees who are not persons of faith will feel welcome and benefit from participating in the workshops.

IS POVERTY 101 A PRE-REQUISITE FOR POVERTY 201?

YES! Attendance at EGM's Poverty 101 is a requirement for entry into Poverty 201. If you have not already attended Poverty 101, two options are available at this time:

1. A special Poverty 101 Class is being offered on October 4th in Lynnwood, WA from 9 AM to 2:30 PM. Added to specifically prepare additional people to become eligible to attend Poverty 201 the following day. At registration (www.Egmission.org/poverty201), select the ticket option entitled "Friday & Saturday: Poverty 101 & 201".
2. Or you can enroll in one of the regularly scheduled Poverty 101 classes using link <https://www.egmission.org/poverty101/>

HOW DO I CONTACT THE ORGANIZER WITH QUESTIONS?
