

Canvas 101

A reminder that if you're new to Canvas, this Canvas Guide video gives you a brief tour of Canvas. The Student Supports Canvas Community also contains a Canvas 101 page for your reference. You can learn more about Announcements and Discussions in the linked Canvas Guides below:

- What are Announcements? (article)
- How do I view Announcements as a student? (article)

Lastly, you may note that you can create Announcements in any of your given Groups. We ask that CTC & CBO staff refrain from making Announcements in Groups, as other members of the group will not be able to respond to your announcements - comments are currently turned off for Announcements in our Community. Discussions will be used to communicate with your colleagues.
