

Call for Proposals

Present at the CTCLDA Fall 2018 Conference

Presented at Clover Park Technical College October 30th

Please submit a proposal to present on our theme of Organizational Health

Why Present?

Presenting at the CTCLDA Conference provides you with an opportunity to share new ideas or highlight noteworthy projects, research and best practices with other professionals in the community and technical colleges. It also earns you recognition as an expert in the field at the conference and beyond.

What

The CTCLDA is looking for presentations that tie closely into the conference keynote presentation. Here is a list of possible topics suggested by Dr. Allerano:

- Institutionalizing social justice
- Faculty-student engagement
- Empowering marginalized communities
- Race is not a four-letter word
- Designing student-centered campuses
- Recognizing power and privilege in leadership
- Intrusive practices
- Institutional responsibility
- Culturally relevant teaching
- Unconscious bias

When?

The breakout sessions will take place in the second section of the conference. The breakout sessions will be 45 to 60 minutes.
