

Implicit Bias, Diversity and Social Justice Workshop

When

Wednesday, March 7, 2018 from
8:00 AM to 12:00 PM PST
Add to Calendar

Where

Shoreline Community College
16101 Greenwood Ave. North
Student Union Building, Rm CC
Shoreline, WA 98133

Driving Directions

Contact:

Diana Wiest
425-235-2352 ext 2210
dwiest@rtc.edu

The Centers of Excellence for Construction and Marine Manufacturing are excited to bring you Dr. Rita Cameron Wedding, a sought-after, highly engaging presenter, consultant and trainer who's expertise covers gender, implicit bias, diversity and social justice.

To learn more about Dr. Rita Cameron Wedding visit:

Dr. Rita Cameron Wedding

and see a video clip here: Watch Dr. Wedding

A complementary lunch will be served

Seating is limited to 30 so don't wait to reserve yours now!!

Registration $75

Register Now!

The Centers of Excellence in Construction and Marine Manufacturing and Technology are committed to supporting inclusion and access to living wage careers in the trades. The implicit bias workshop is followed by a day-long conference designed to support women in nontraditional careers and create a shared movement among men and women to foster a climate of mentorship, leadership, inclusion and diversity in the trades.

Visit Tradeempower.com to register and feel free to share this opportunity widely.

